TRUSTEES FAVOR RAISING $10,000 FOR GOLF COURSE

McGregor, Engs, Rudd, Maynard, and Pomeroy Are Unanimously Re-elected to Board

ELIHU ROOT IS ABSENT

Professor Paul Adee Fancher Is Appointed to Full Professorship in English Department and Nesbitt, '24, Is Made Instructor

The Board of Trustees of the college at its annual spring meeting held last Saturday approved of a plan for the raising of $10,000 for the improvement and extension of the golf course. Other features of the meeting were the appointment of Professor Paul Adee Fancher, formerly associate professor in the English department to a full professorship, and the appointment of George L. Nesbitt, '24, of Schenevus, as an instructor in the same department.

The meeting of the Board of Trustees was held in the Hall of Philosophy. All the members were present except Elihu Root, '64, Charles B. Rogers, '87, and Robert W. Pomeroy, who had been excused. The absence of Elihu Root, the president of the board, who is at present in California because of his recent poor health, prevented the launching of any new projects. An official telegram was dispatched to Senator Root by the board expressing their regret of the circumstances which rendered his absence necessary.

A main feature of the meeting was the re-electing unanimously of the five trustees whose term expired today. They are the Rev. Robert G. McGregor, '97, of New Rochelle, Samuel F. Engs, '83, of New York, Joseph Rudd, '90, of Clinton, Reuben L. Maynard, '84, of New York, and Robert W. Pomeroy of Buffalo. Their term is for seven years as before. Elihu Root, Jr., '03, of New York, was also elected to membership on the board for a term of seven years.

An enlargement of the college golf course is in sight as a result of this meeting. The Committee of Ways and Means, of which Daniel Burke, '93, is chairman, requested and received the approval of the board of their plan to raise $10,000 for the improvement and extension of the golf course. It is proposed to lay out four holes on the North property. This would mean the abandonment of the shale pit hole.

The other business transacted was purely routine. The sum of $1,000 was appropriated to hire a landscape gardener to do some work about the campus. Candidates for honorary degrees were authorized. A new salary scale for the faculty was approved, the same to be effective June 1, 1924.

PROSPECTIVE FRESHMEN ARE GUESTS OF COLLEGE

Newly Inaugurated System of "Open House" Works Well

Last Friday and Saturday seventy-five prospective freshmen were the guests of the college for the annual sub-freshman weekend. Every crowd entertained guests and several fraternities pledged some of the men for next year. A new system of "open house" was inaugurated by the fraternities in order that the sub-freshmen might feel free to visit any or all fraternity houses that they wished. The new plan worked very well, and open house will probably be held again next year.

Hamilton's tradition of rain on or before sub-freshman day was upheld as usual. As a result, the baseball game with Union and the tennis match with St. Stephens had to be cancelled. The sub-freshmen were entertained, however, by a college dinner in Commons Friday evening, by a track meet with Union and a golf tournament Saturday afternoon, and a movie in Commons Saturday evening.

The twenty-fifth annual inter-academic prize speaking contest was held in the chapel Saturday morning at 11 o'clock with Professor Calvin L. Lewis presiding. The first prize was won by George Sample of Binghamton Central High School, who spoke a declamation entitled "Abraham Lincoln." Second place was taken by William C. Treanor of Evander Childs High School, New York City, who spoke on "The American Constitution." Professors Rudd, Fancher, and Marsh acted as judges.

—Harry J. Ahlheim, '12, was married on April 10 to Miss Lillian Wilson Shepard of Brooklyn. Ahlheim is a member of Delta Upsilon.

WILLIAMS NINE TO PLAY HERE WED.

The Purple Is Scheduled to Play Syracuse at Syracuse Today

The Williams baseball team will meet Hamilton in Clinton tomorrow. Thus far the Purple has played six games this season, winning two, losing three, and tieing one. During the spring vacation, the Williams squad trained at the University of Delaware in Newark, Del., and played their team to a 10-10 tie, which was called at the end of the ninth inning by mutual agreement. Later the Williams team met Pennsylvania and was defeated 4-1, and Columbia was victor over Williams by a 9-1 score. In their first home game Norwich was beaten 19-5, and the next week Williams trimmed M. A. C. 9-3. On Saturday, May 3, the Williams team was blanked by the undefeated Princeton team 8-0, Caldwell their ace pitcher, doing the hurling. This past weekend Williams played Pennsylvania at Williamstown and was defeated by the score 8-2. Long, who pitched for the visitors, was quite a puzzle, while Haley was unable to hold the Quakers in check. Today Williams plays Syracuse at Syracuse.

Next Saturday, May 17, Hamilton will play the Rochester team here. The Union game, which was to have been played last Saturday, has been permanently cancelled and no other game will be substituted.

HAMILTON WILL HAVE HARD MEET FRIDAY

Buff and Blue Track Men Will Meet Colgate at Hamilton

The Hamilton track team will have a hard meet this Friday when it encounters the Colgate team at Hamilton, N. Y. The trouncing given the Buff and Blue last week by the Alfred team and its star captain does not augur well for Hamilton's chance in the coming meet but the team may come out of the slump in good style. The entries will be about the same as in last week's meet. Alison and LeFever are the team's best bets in the shorter dashes, with Thomas, V. Alison, Thompson and Snyder entering the shorter runs. Clark and Watkins will enter the 2-mile run. Valentine and Smith will hurdle for the Buff and Blue. It is hoped that Hamilton's team in the field events will show up materially better than they did the past week. Brush and McGiffin look best for the weight events and Stone is expected to show up well in the javelin throw. Those entering the other events will probably be the same ones as competed last Saturday.

PRIZE STAGE APPOINTEES ARE NAMED BY PRESIDENT

Appointments to the McKinney and to the Commencement prize stage were announced yesterday morning after chapel by President Ferry. Lester Albertson will be the Kirkland Prize Orator and Francis Eugene Curran will be the Head Prize Orator. The six appointees to the Clark Prize oratorical contest are George F. Burroughs, William Grant Lewi, Jr., Nathaniel H. McGiffin, George Lyman Nesbitt, Paul Stevens Olver, and William H. Pritchard, Jr.

Hamilton Puts on Gala Attire In Preparation for Spring Party

College Will Swarm to Clinton Tomorrow or Next Day for Hair-cut, and Freshmen Already Have Started to Wax Floors.

Hamilton College is putting on gala attire in preparation for the long-anticipated spring house-party which starts next Friday. The college body will swarm to Clinton tomorrow or next day for a cut-cut and the freshmen are already waxing floors. Each fraternity will have a formal dinner Friday evening followed by a dance. Sigma Phi, Alpha Delta Phi, Theta Delta Chi, Chi Psi, and E. L. S. will observe open house on Friday night; the others on Saturday night. E. L. S. will entertain both Friday and Saturday.

Saturday's program includes two new features. The One-Club golf event, and a Myers lecture. The One-Club Event, which comes at 1 o'clock, will be a golf tournament in which each contestant must choose one golf club which he shall use exclusively for the six holes. Later there will be a baseball game with Rochester, followed by a tennis match with Syracuse. The Freshman Frolic will start at the Chi Psi Lodge at 4:30.

Miss Edna Ferber will deliver the Myers lecture in the Chapel from 8 to 9. She will read selections from, and talk about, one of her books, "The Gay Old Dog." Dancing will begin at the fraternity houses at 9. The Sunday preacher is to be the Rev. Frank M. Weston, D.D., of Geneva.

CLASS OF '04 PLANS TO BE ON HAND STRONG IN JUNE

The Class of 1904 is planning to be on hand in June for its 20th reunion in goodly numbers. Interest in the event is being stirred up by frequent luncheon gatherings of the members of the class in and around New York City. Secretary Ferguson reports that 25 members have already promised to come back. The class will have assembly at Hotel Utica at 6:30 Friday evening, June 13, coming to Clinton on Saturday morning. Although no definite information can be obtained on this point, it is rumored that 1904 is planning a program for this reunion that will make the under-grads and the older grads sit up and take notice.

—Last week in the 1st Presbyterian Church of Johnstown, the marriage of Miss Gertrude Boyce and Howard C. Allen, '20, took place. Allen is a member of Theta Delta Chi, and is employed in New York City.

BAD WEATHER RAISES HOB WITH TENNIS SCHEDULE

Courts Have Been So Muddy that Only One Match Has Been Played

The interfraternity tennis schedule, which has been arranged with great care, has been broken up by the inclement weather. The courts have been so muddy for the past few days that only one match has been played. Last Wednesday the Theta Delts defeated the Neutrals by the score of 6-0, 6-1. Howe and Thompson represented the Theta Delts, Kane and Kirby the Neutrals. The Emerson Lits lost to the D. U.'s by default. The remainder of the matches will be played off as soon as the weather permits in the following order:

Sigma Phi vs Chi Psi; Lambda Xi Sigma vs Alpha Delta Phi; Theta Delta Chi vs Delta Upsilon.

The following teams drew bye for their first match:

D. K. E. vs Lambda Chi Alpha; Psi U vs Chi Beta Sigma.

FROSH MUST SIGN UP FOR ASS-MANAGER JOBS

The attention of all freshmen who intend to enter in the managerial competition for next year is called to the fact that all names must be handed to Douglas Hays, Secretary of the Executive Council, before Thursday, May 15. It is imperative that all prospective ass-managers sign up on or before that date. Only a few names have been handed in as yet, but it is hoped that a large number will be turned in. Those who have already signed up are: Robert J. Amos, Burton C. Belden, Eben C. Brink, Winthrop Davenport, James P. Foley, Karl H. Hinke, Fred S. Marquardt, D. R. Pickard.

BUFF AND BLUE LOSES MEET TO ALFRED, 77-99

Alfred Captain Has Highest Individual Score with 26 Points

The Buff and Blue track team suffered defeat in the first meet of the season, when it lost by a score of 77-49 to the team from Alfred. The day was cloudy and the track was rather slow. Alfred's score was materially aided by the work of its captain, L. McConnell, who had the highest individual score of the meet, 26 points. He took three firsts, three seconds and a tie for second. His score was mainly in the field events. Alec Alison, the Buff and Blue captain, earned a total of 18 points, taking three firsts and a second. His work was the best of the meet in the track events. Gibbs of Alfred proved to be a good point-gatherer with two firsts in the races and a tie for second in one of the field events. Thomas and LeFever of Hamilton did well with a first and a second and two seconds respectively. One of the interesting features of the meet was the winning of first and second place respectively in the javelin throw by McConnel, who threw the weapon for the first time in his track career and by Stone of Hamilton, who only began practicing in that event in the middle of the past week. A crowd of about 200 spectators watched the meet.

The summary follows:

100 yard dash: Won by A. Alison H; LeFever H, 2nd; Horner A, 3rd. Time 10 2-5 seconds.

120 yard high hurdles: Won by Gibbs A; L. McConnell, A, 2nd; H. Valentine, H, 3rd. Time 17 2-5 seconds.

"THE FAITHFUL" WILL BE COMMENCEMENT PLAY

Announcement to the effect that Masefield's "The Faithful" will be the Charlatans' Commencement play instead of "To the Ladies" as at first contemplated, was recently made by President Baer. It has been urged that alumni and guests at Commencement time should be given the opportunity to see the Charlatans present a really artistic and difficult production instead of the light comedy type which has held sway in former years.

The same cast which took part in the Utica performance will give the play. The production will be staged in the gymnasium.

AUTHOR OF NOVEL "SO BIG" TO TALK HERE SATURDAY

Edna Ferber Will Be First Woman to Appear on Chapel Platform as Myer's Lecturer

IS LAST MYER'S LECTURE

Alexander Woollcott, '09, and F. P. Adams, New York World Columnist, Will Also Be Here on Weekend

Edna Ferber, noted author and writer of "So Big," the best-selling novel of 1924, will give the last Myer's lecture of the year in the chapel on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Ferber will be the first woman to appear on the chapel platform as a Myer's lecturer. The subject of her lecture has not been announced, but it is expected that she will start with a few preliminary remarks and then read a selection entitled "The Gay Old Dog" from her novel "Cheerful—By Request." The lecture will be quite short, lasting about an hour, so that students will be able to attend before the house-party dances begin in the evening.

Hamilton College is considered very fortunate in securing such a noted figure in the literary world as Edna Ferber to address the college. Born in Kalamazoo, Mich., August 17, 1887, Miss Ferber received her public school education in the city of Appleton, Wis. At the age of 17 years she began her career as a writer in the capacity of a reporter on the Appleton Daily Crescent. She was successively employed upon the Milwaukee Journal, and the Chicago Tribune, before launching out on a more independent career as a writer of short stories for magazines. Miss Ferber has recently finished a play written in collaboration with George S. Kaufman, the noted and successful playwright.

Miss Ferber's books include Dawn O'Hara, 1911; Buttered Side Down, 1912; Roast Beef Medium, 1913; Personality Plus, 1919; Emma McChesney and Co., 1915; Fanny Herself, 1917; Cheerful—By Request, 1918; Half Portions, 1919; The Girls, 1921; Co-author with George V. Hobart in the comedy, Our Mrs. McChesney; So Big, 1924.

The latter book, easily the leading American contribution to the world of fiction that has appeared thus far this year, is a work that has aroused the greatest enthusiasm and discussion in the literary world. reviewers everywhere have established it as a work significant in its art of careful and sympathetic delineation. From the reviewers might be quoted:

"....a fine tayle, too, in especial the parts about Selina coming to the small town in Illinois, and her wooing and the days when they sold produce in the Haymarket in Chicago."—F. P. A.'s Pepysian Diary in the New York World.

" 'So Big' is a masterpiece"—The Literary Review.

"I cannot see how anyone can top it for the Pulitzer Prize for the best novel of 1924"—Grant Overton.

The story is that of a woman who marries a Dutch farmer, and takes up her residence in a rural community immediately outside of Chicago. Upon the death of her husband, her hope is centered in her son, who displays talent as an architect. The son gives up his more idealistic career to enter the financial world, where although he is successful, he does not soothe the disappointment of his mother.

A COMMUNICATION

To the Editor of Hamilton Life:

The presence of a Freshman Society on the Hill is known, but its aims and purposes are not. They are twofold.

First: To extend, promote and create good-fellowship among the freshmen classes of Hamilton College.

Second: To promote a better observance of the Freshman Rules of Hamilton College.

A few days ago President Ferry accorded the Society his recognition and support. The following are members:

From the class of '27, Goodwin, Gray, Groff, Sarcka, N. Mann, Howk, F. Jones, McKernan, R. Stanley, Gillespie, Sayres, Springmann. From the class of '25: Hatch; from the class of '24, Yule and Albertson; and W. Strong, ex-'27, Huston, ex-'27, J. S. Baker, ex-'27.

No Art Here?

"There is no art in Hamilton," said C. Howard Walker, lecturer on Architecture in Harvard University, when he spoke on the Hill a few days ago. Of course, Mr. Walker was wrong. Doubtless he was totally unacquainted with the three distinct art courses offered at Hamilton, including the study of Greek and Roman Art, Choral Music, and the course in Appreciation of Art. Doubtless, also he is unacquainted with the work of the class in Dramatic Interpretation and the Theater Workshop. It does seem certain, however, that for a man of Mr. Walker's unquestioned ability to make such a statement, he surely had never seen some of the truly artistic triumphs of the Charlatans. Had Mr. Walker been privileged to see the recent production of the Charlatans', John Masefield's "The Faithful," it is a safe assumption that he never would have made such a statement.

But the point of the whole matter is this: Mr. Walker perhaps was not far wrong when he made his statement, as was shown by the pitifully small crowd of Hamilton men—and we refer to the members of the faculty as well as to the students—who attended the performance of "The Faithful" in Utica last Monday evening.

A crowd of 79 people (by actual count) saw "The Faithful". This number included a handful of students and the really encouraging number of three members of the faculty. The Charlatans, in the face of one of the greatest disappointments any similar organization can meet, put on a finished production that was characterized by superb acting and artistry. Mr. Fancher, who so ably directed the production, and members of the cast deserve great credit and commendation. The small crowd in attendance was kept in an emotional suspense that few crowds who attend even professional productions are held in. The play was so well staged that many persons have said they hope the Charlatans will give it as the Commencement play. Others are of the opinion that the play might successfully be given in one of Utica's largest playhouses. The Utica Press said of it in part:

"The Charlatans of Hamilton College did some real acting in their presentation of John Masefield's Japanese tragedy "The Faithful." Those 29 college students, members of the cast, presented an exceedingly difficult play in a manner rivaling professionals."

In short, the play was an artistic triumph. Three professors and perhaps twenty students were in the audience. Truly an inspiring showing!

If there was a baseball game or a football game, or a track meet held in Utica in which Hamilton participated, half the college would go in, and those who did not, would very properly be "razzed" as poor sports.

It is useless to attempt to urge men to go to such productions as the Charlatans or other similar, non-athletic college organizations may attempt where the interest is so appallingly lacking. Special invitations and private autos for transportation might turn the trick, but it is doubtful.

The Charlatans put on a finished production. A woefully small group of college men showed enough interest to attend. Perhaps C. Howard Walker was not far wrong when he said, "There is no art in Hamilton."

Parlor Theorists.

A few weeks ago at the instigation of a number of ministers of the community, what was termed an industrial conference was held in one of the large cities of this country. It was the hope of the promoters that as a result of the gathering, a solution would be found for the economic evils of the land. The conference, however, was a flat failure.

This was so because it was based on wrong assumptions; namely, that all the things complained of could be corrected if only the so-called working classes could have their wage demands granted and their hours of labor reduced. Because the conference was so conceived, the employers, so-called, took no interest and were not present, with the result that their absence was cited as further evidence that they were to blame for the industrial unrest that prompted the calling of the meeting.

The fact of the matter is that too many theories are accepted as possible of practical solution and too many conclusions regarding economic conditions are reached without any attempt to get at the facts which necessarily should enter into any logical consideration of the subject.

Only Sunday before last in college chapel, "Big Business' was assailed on the theory that its methods were prompted solely by economic factors and that there was no consideration by industrial leaders of what might be termed the spiritual element. Too many such statements are being glibly made today by those who neglect to ascertain the facts, and there is a growing tendency in the eductional institutions of the country to accept such statements as truths because of the sources from which they emanate. Yet on every hand there are striking examples flatly contradicting the assertions.

Take the case of "Golden Rule" Nash of Cincinnati. Mr. Nash's big clothing business now totalling upwards of $7,000,000 annually was started in 1918 with on annual output of approximately $300,000. His remarkable success, as he and all his workers will testify, is attributed solely to the observance of the Golden Rule as laid down in the Bible, in the operation of every detail of the business.

As another illustration, take the case of the United States Steel Corporation, which, in response to the expression of a wish from the late President Harding, went from a 12-hour day to an 8-hour day basis, even though from the economic viewpoint, the extra expense totalled upwards of $50,000,000 annually.

All modern luxuries which have become conveniences and necessities are traceable directly to the work and efforts of this so much derided "Big Business." Electricity, rubber, the mines, the forests, the fisheries, and natural resources everywhere have been developed and made possible solely because of "Big Business," and "Big Business" today, and for a long time past, has been operated without exploitation of the workers for the simple reason that such exploitation is the poorest kind of poor business.

When parlor theorists cogitate upon that ever toothsome morsel to them, a living wage, and ask an honest labor leader "What is a living wage?" as was done at the industrial conference referred to ,they will get the answer that was given at the conference, namely "All that we can get out of the employer."

There always will be this constant striving to get all that can possibly be obtained in a struggle prompted by a difference of opinion, and the best that can be done to get the best results for all concerned is to so advance the spiritual welfare of our country that we may all come in time "to do unto others as we would be done by." For when that time arrives, we will all endeavor to understand the other man's viewpoint before we condemn off-hand on incomplete information.

—Herbert D. Meritt and Lawrence A. Wood, '24, were appointed as the new chapel markers at a meeting of the faculty held last Monday afternoon. John C. Toaz and Lynn M. Case, '24, were appointed as assistant markers.

GERMAN CLUB TO MEET

The German Club will hold a meeting tomorrow, Wednesday, evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Dr. Hauch.

Carpe Diem

Evidently Union hasn't recovered from the excitement of her football victory yet. Carpe was down at Bloomfield during Easter vacation and two high school students said that they had heard that Hamilton had a rotten football team. Two Union "recruiting officers" spoke to the high school and wasted five whole minutes describing their victory at Clinton. It took 'em twenty-six years to do it, though.

White collar jobs no longer appeal to the Sigh U's. They are reduced to chopping and sawing wood—by moonlight plus headlight. After examining their hands, only one seems to have been used to manual labor. G. Perrine was the one not susceptible to blisters.

* * *

No, girls, those thirteen funny boys haven't lost their keeper. Like Grape Nuts, "There's a reason."

* * *

The Clinton Stock and Bond Company promises a rapid rise in the Undertakers' Association for this coming year. At any rate, with the advent of the Dekes and the Theta Delts to the hilltop, there is bound to be a full graveyard during the house party seasons.

* * *

"All the worlds' a stage." But the Chapel steps beat the world for dramatizing the lifelike actions in Shakespeare's plays.

* * *

A new auto sales company has come into existence. Everything from Fords to Hudsons. Apply to Duff and Ogden, proprietors.

* * *

The D. U.'s seem to have become nature lovers. They are collecting new specinmens of sod every night.

* * *

What on earth is the matter with the freshmen? They have all taken to writing poetry for a pastime. Spring fever never gave Carpe the desire to become a poet, although "Pluto Waters" by C. C. C., is said to have been inspired by some such fever.

* * *

Carpe has just heard that Robert K. (Toto) Turner, ex-'22, whom some of the Old Guard may remember as having left college surreptitiously not so long ago, has been granted a Master of Arts degree at the University of Washintgon. Go West, young man, go West!

Speaking of things uncontrollable reminds us that houseparty will soon be here. The "Plastic Age" is still being snatched by eager hands—for a houseparty "line" no doubt.

HATCH AND SOPER ELECTED ROYAL GABOON EDITORS

John Ruggles Hatch and Alexander C. Soper were elected editor-in-chief and art editor respectively of the Royal Gaboon for the coming scholastic year at a meeting of the board last Wednesday. William Baer, retiring editor, gave Hatch the first nomination for the editorship and named F. William Johnson second. Soper was the only nominee for the art editorship.

Hatch is captain-elect of the soccer and basketball teams, and holds down a regular position on the baseball team. He is also on the Executive Council of the Undergraduate Association. Hatch is a member of D. T., Was Los and Chi Psi. Soper is editor of the 1924-25 Handbook, is on the Life board and is a member of the Glee and Instrumental Clubs, and was Art Editor of the 1925 Hamiltonian. He is a member of D. T. and Sigma Phi.

The two new editors will take charge of the publication for the Commencement issue which will come out during the final week of the college year. The next issue, which will be the last number under the present editors, is the Spring House Party number and will be out in time for the party.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL TEAM OVERWHELMS U. F. A. 11-5

In their second start of the season, the yearling baseball team got under way and overwhelmed the U. F. A. team by a score of 11-5. The game was very even until the sixth inning when Voll, the U. F. A. pitcher, weakened and enabled the freshmen to tally up six runs. Walter Donohue pitched a fine game for the yearlings and tightened up in the pinches. Most of the visitors' runs were scored as a result of ragged fielding. Jacobson, U. F. A.'s relief pitcher, managed to hold the freshmen in check after getting off to a poor start.

Sarcka featured for Hamilton, covering his position very well and connecting for two triples out of four trips to the plate . King at second base made several very difficult stops.

—The Chess Club reports that as a result of the fine chess material uncovered this year, plans for a match with Princeton are being made.

Whatever your "Choice of a Career," college training has increased your economic value, and whatever business or profession you enter, adequate life insurance is a proper self-appraisal of your powers in that direction.

The traditions, practices, and financial strength of the JOHN HANCOCK Mutual Life Insurance Company are such that a college man can take especial pride in having a John Hancock policy on his life. It is also a distinct asset from the start. It will pay you to buy it; and later on, should you think of joining the field corps of this company, it will also pay you to sell John Hancock policies. Our representatives will tell you just how, and assist you in selecting both your career and your insurance.

MANY SUB-FRESHMEN AT COLLEGE DINNER

Letters and Numerals Are Awarded for Soccer, Basketball and Hockey

Seventy-five sub-freshmen and the entire student body, faculty members and alumni met together in the Hall of Commons last Friday evening on the occasion of the annual college dinner. Nathaniel McGiffin, President of the Senior Class, acted as toastmaster . After the dinner, Daniel Burke, '93, of New York, addressed the gathering as the main speaker of the evening. Coach Carroll, Dr. R. G. McGregor, '97, Professor Chase and several of the representative upperclassmen also spoke briefly. Sherrill Sherman, '04, awarded varsity letters for hockey, basketball and soccer. During the course of the evening the Instrumental and Glee Clubs entertained and several college songs were sung.

Following the several preliminary speeches Mr. Daniel Burke, '93, delivered the main address of the evening. He declared:

"The man who is going into business has a broader field of operation than one entering a profession. He must have an education which will cover the world with all its politics, commerce and finance. I not only call you men of the college to the ideal professions of teaching and preaching. I call you to medicine and to law, for these professions, more than any other, give a man an opportunity to serve mankind."

Sherrill Sherman, '04, then awarded varsity letters in hockey, basketball, and soccer to the following men:

Hockey: Capt. Bates, '24, Capt.-elect Thompson, '25, Marks, '24, Meehan, '24, Yates, '25, Johnson, '25, H. and J. Valentine, '25, Nicholson and Van Vleet, '26. Full numerals to Brush, Martin, Stanley, '26, Kaiser, '25.

Basketball: Capt. Hamilton, '24, Capt.-elect Hatch, '25, McGiffin, '24, Croasdaile, '25, Marquardt and Payne, '26, Stone and Howk, '27. Full numerals to Burns, '26.

The minor sport letter for soccer: Capt. Chevraux, '25, Capt.-elect Hatch, '25, Heffron, Moore, Meehan, and Brownell, '24, Brown, '25, Ireland, Payne and Nichols, '26, Howk, '27. Full numerals to Forshay, '27.

The gathering adjourned following the singing of "Carissima."

ONE CLUB EVENT IS NEXT ON GOLF PROGRAM FOR MAY

Peter Robertson Makes Low Score for Round with 22

The next event on the golf program for May is the One Club event to be staged at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Contestants are to choose one club and to use only that club during one round of six holes. It is believed that this event will be quite in keeping with the spirit of the house party weekend. Before contestants start out they are requested to register their names with a member of the Golf Committee who will be located at the first tee.

The Interfraternity Tournament will start on the Monday after house party. Team captains are requested to submit the names of the men on their teams to members of the Golf Committee before Friday of this week so that a schedule may be made out.

Those who wish to enter the handicap tournament on May 24 and who have not yet turned in three scores for a handicap rating should do so immediately.

The exhibition golf match put on by Sherrill Sherman, Kerr Nichols, Willie Campbell, and Peter Robertson over the College course Saturday afternoon, brought out a large gallery despite a heavily water-soaked course which made walking difficult. The course was very slow, and prevented low scores, but the crowd was most enthusiastic over the exhibition.

Eighteen holes were played. During the last round, Donald Jones, '24, took the place of Sherrill Sherman.

The lowest score for a round was the 22 scored by Peter Robertson. Mr. Robertson got a great hand from the gallery when he sank a 90-foot putt on the first green for a birdie 2. On his last round, Mr. Robertson scored another birdie on the long fourth hole, putting his brassie second five feet from the pin for a 3.

TENNIS MEN HOPE TO OPEN SEASON WITH MATCH WED.

Syracuse Is Scheduled to Play on Local Courts if Rain Holds Off

Having been forced to cancel the first three matches on its schedule, the Hamilton tennis team hopes to pry the lid off its 1924 season in a match with Syracuse here Wednesday. The curtain-raiser was originally scheduled for April 30 in a match with Colgate at Clinton. Rain, however, forced the cancellation of this match, and the first out-of-town match, which was scheduled with Rochester on May 3 had to be called off also. The cancellation of the third straight match, which was slated with St. Stephens here, was made necessary by the wet courts last Saturday.

Weather conditions permitting, the racquet wielders will play a home and home series with Syracuse this week. The match at Clinton will take place tomorrow, and the Syracuse match is carded for Saturday. Little is known concerning the Syracuse net men, but if teams of former seasons can be taken as a criterion, there is little doubt but that the Buff and Blue team will have to extend itself to make a good showing.

Although the line up is not definitely known, it is probable that the team will be composed of Ogilvie, McGregor, Kelly and Chase. Ogilvie and McGregor have been paired together for the doubles and Kelly and Chase will also work together.
